About the topic: Breeding soundness examination of the stallion is a key component of equine reproduction management, as use of subfertile stallions can have a negative impact on the equine breeding industry. Thus, today's good selection will fetch tomorrow's better population.

About the speaker: Dr. Firdous Ahmad Khan has a doctoral from the University of Guelph, Canada and has simultaneously completed his residency in theriogenology at the Ontario Veterinary College, University of Guelph and a Diplomate of the American College of Theriogenologists. He has been a recipient of numerous awards, namely the Hill's Golden Apple Teaching Award, the Outstanding Professor Award etc.
