About the College of Veterinary & Animal Sciences (COVAS), Kishanganj

Established on August 24, 2022, under the approval of the Bihar Gazette (No. 797, dated 21.09.2021), the College of Veterinary & Animal Sciences (COVAS), Kishanganj, is the second veterinary college of Bihar Animal Science University (BASU), Patna, and the state of Bihar. Situated on the bank of the Mahananda River, the campus is surrounded by lush green tea gardens, earning Kishanganj the title "Tea City of Bihar."

Sharing its campus with Dr. Kalam Agricultural College and the College of Fisheries, COVAS is approximately 25 km from Kishanganj city, well-connected by rail, road, and air (Bagdogra International Airport). Its proximity to West Bengal and Nepal adds to the region's charm and accessibility.

The college features state-of-the-art facilities, including:

- A four-story academic building with modern laboratories, smart classrooms, and residential accommodations.
- A well-equipped veterinary hospital offering services like clinical biochemistry, pathology, operation theaters, etc. for large and small animals.

COVAS is dedicated to advancing veterinary education, research, and extension programs, guided by a team of highly qualified faculty from reputed institutions. Its mission is to produce skilled professionals to support the region's economy, which heavily depends on animal husbandry and farming.

About SPFCA

Society for Promotion of Farm and Companion Animals (SPFCA) has been established with its headquarters at Bihar Veterinary College Campus, Bihar Animal Sciences University (BASU), Patna, Bihar as per Society Registration Act- 21, 1860 through Registration, Excise & Prohibition Department, Government of Bihar. The Society became operational from 16 March 2020 with its certification vide registration no. S20039/2019-20. The new society has been formed to create greater awareness in and around Bihar about upkeep and caring for companion and farm animals through animal welfare education, veterinary training, and their promotion among pet lovers and farmers as well. To further expand the horizon of society and strengthen the promotion of farm and companion animals, national and international seminars/webinars and symposiums are being organized.

Scientific Session

The National Conference will span two days and offer a comprehensive program designed to foster knowledge-sharing and collaboration. The event will feature keynote addresses by esteemed experts in the field and lead paper presentations that highlight cutting-edge research and developments. Attendees will also have the opportunity to participate in oral and poster presentation sessions, which will cover a range of thematic areas, encouraging interactive discussions and the exchange of ideas among participants.
